our packages

A favorite tournament of both players and fans alike, the BNP Paribas Open in March is a can't-miss tennis event! Formerly known as the Pacific Life Open, the first Masters 1000 series tournament of the year is also the biggest. Staged in sunny Indian Wells, California, the climate, the grounds, and the atmosphere make this easily one of the most fun, accessible tournaments in the world. For ATP and WTA fans, this is an incredibly popular event, and if you don't like vacation planning, our packages make for the perfect tennis getaway. Stay at the best resorts, sit in the best seats, and enjoy seamless transportation to and from the venue. Don't miss out!

bnp paribas open

You travel with us to see amazing tennis in the best seats, but our packages include so much more than just tickets! Stay in the best hotels, get to and from the tennis with hassle-free transportation, and enjoy an amazing buffet dinner at the Indian Wells Tennis Garden in between the day and night sessions with other Topnotch Tennis Tours travelers. You will also receive a commemorative gift, and if, during your stay, you need help with anything, an experienced tour host is never more than a call away to make your trip flawless from arrival to departure.
